METHODIST BAZAAR A SUCCESS.

We are glad to announce that the Bazaar held by the ladies of the Methodist Church, on Friday last, was a decided success.

Every article offered was quickly disposed of, and the lunch served was dainty and appetizing. Better than all, the financial part was also a success. A snug sum was realized.

Are you having trouble with your kidneys? There are lots of people to-day who wonder why they have pains across the back, why they are tired and lacking in energy and ambition. Your kidneys are wrong. They need relief without delay. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills; they are for weak back, inflammation of the bladder, backache and weak kidneys. Sold by South & Co.

GOVERNMENT COAL.

Large quantities of coal are being unloaded at Lock No. 4, just below this city for the use of the government repair fleet during the coming spring and fall.

TOBACCO BARN BURNED.

Mr. Alvin Wiley, of the Woodlake neighborhood, had his tobacco in the hogheads ready to send to market, but Saturday night last the barn was set on fire and, with all its contents, was totally destroyed.

These outrages are the limit and every man concerned in them should be punished to the extent of the law. It is nothing but anarchy.

REDUCED RATES VIA QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Tickets on sale December 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 30, 31, 1907, and January 1, 1908, with final limit January 6, 1908. Ask agents for particulars, or write H. G. King, G. P. A., Lexington, Ky.

HERE'S GOOD ADVICE.

O. S. Woodlee, one of the best known merchants of La Rayville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Guaranteed for sores, wounds, burns or abrasions. 25c at all drug stores.

POPULAR TOBACCO MAN IN THE CITY.

Mr. Charles Hutchison, some time of Louisville and Frankfort, but whose home is in Augusta, Bracken county, blew into the Capital, Monday evening, to witness the inauguration ceremonies. Mr. Hutchison is a buyer for the Planter's Warehouse, of Louisville, and is now stationed in Shelby county, with headquarters in Bagdad. He is one of the most accomplished judges of tobacco in the State and is such a clever and jovial fellow withal, that although as an independent buyer he has been operating in forbidden territory, the "night riders" have mercifully spared him a visit. Mr. Hutchison was in charge of the rebanding house of the Planters, which was located on Holmes street, in this city, in the spring, summer and fall of 1905, and made numerous friends here where he became quite popular.

There is nothing about Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup that makes it different from others, as it causes a free yet gentle action of the bowels through which the cold is forced out of the system. At the same time it heals irritation and allays inflammation of the throat and lungs. It is pleasant to take. Children like it. Contains no opiates nor narcotics. Sold by South & Co.

FIRE TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

At 4:15 o'clock, on Tuesday afternoon, an alarm from box 34 called the fire boys to the Capital Gas and Electric Light Plant, where a small blaze in the roof was causing uneasiness. It was quickly extinguished, with only nominal loss.

A DANGEROUS DEADLOCK.

That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at all drug stores, 25c.

Purifies the blood! Cures skin eruptions for the skin.

HORACE GLASS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Mr. Horace Glass, who resides on the West Side, met with a serious accident, Tuesday morning, and will be confined to his room and bed in consequence for a number of weeks. Mr. Glass was handling a revolver, which he owns, at his home, when the weapon was suddenly discharged and the ball entered his breast. A downward course was taken by the projectile, which finally lodged in the side.

Medical attention was summoned at once, and the injuries of the wounded man attended to skillfully. While there is no apparent danger to be apprehended from the wound, the injury is a painful one and is liable to cause considerable trouble to the patient. Mr. Glass is a former river man, having been employed for several years on the government fleet, which is engaged in Kentucky river repair work. Of late he has been at work on the new depot. He is very popular with all who know him, and he has a large number of friends in the Capital City.

Dewitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve—don't forget the name, and accept no substitute. Get Dewitt's. It's good for piles. Sold by South & Co.

NO SMALLPOX IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.

It was reported on the street, during the early part of the present week, that there were several cases of smallpox in this county, but the report is strongly denied from an authentic source, and probably gained currency from the fact that, just over the Woodford line, in the Millville and Old Crow neighborhoods, there are ten or twelve cases.

As these have all been isolated, however, it is not anticipated that there will be such an epidemic as will carry the dreaded disease over into this county. Should it eventually, Frankfort and Franklin county with a well equipped eruptive hospital, are prepared to meet and overcome the threatened invasion.

IS A MOTHER WORTH LESS THAN A FATHER?

Two small children in New Jersey, Mildred and William Carter, lost their parents in a wreck, and a jury, sitting in Camden, has just awarded the orphans $23,000 damages, $5,000 for the loss of their mother and $18,000 for the loss of their father. There was no insinuation that Mrs. Carter was not a good mother, but, being a woman, it was assumed that her branes. No optimum, no chloroform, value to her children was less than nothing third that of the father. It will be remembered that another New Jersey jury, some months ago, in awarding damages to the parents of school children killed in a railroad accident, decided that a son was worth vastly more than a daughter.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No optimum, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Capitol Pharmacy.

F. & J. HEENEY

Col. C. W. Fowler, of Kentucky Military Institute, at Lyndon, was here with his fine corps of cadets on Tuesday, to take part in the inauguration ceremonies. The boys marched like veterans and our old friend, the Colonel, had reason to be proud of them. He is every inch a soldier and fine gentleman. He made us a pleasant call. We rejoice in his life work. He brought his handsome better half with him also.

FRANKFORT BOY WINS APPOINTMENT.

Among the recent appointments made by the Board of Control of the city of Louisville, is that of Mr. Harry Todd Crittenden, son of Mrs. Robt. H. Crittenden, of this city, who was appointed Superintendent of the Street Cleaning Department.

Another Frankfort boy comes to the front and lands a good responsible position.

ACCIDENT ON INTERURBAN.

On Wednesday morning, at 3 o'clock, an interurban car, bound to Lexington, became stalled by the failure of the electric current. While waiting for reinforced current, another car came sliding down the hill of course, having no headlight burning. It crashed into the first car, injuring several passengers, among them one gentleman whose arm was broken. The cars were both damaged and transportation delayed several hours.

RESIGNED—APPOINTED.

To the regret of every patron of the city schools, Mr. Jno. A. Brian, a member of the Board of Education from the Second Ward, has resigned the position. He had served heretofore and made a most efficient officer. Mr. M. J. Meagher was selected to fill the vacancy.

At the first meeting of the Railroad Commission, on Wednesday, Mr. A. T. Siler, the member from the Third District, was elected President for the first two years, with the understanding that Col. L. P. Tarlton, the other Republican member of the Commission, should serve in a like capacity for the succeeding two years. Thus making things serene all the way round.

LOCAL TOPICS

Frankfort shoppers, ladies or gentlemen, no matter how fastidious, need not go to the larger cities to find what they want in the way of holiday remembrances to their relatives and friends. The large variety of Christmas goods carried by the local merchants is calculated to fill every want in this regard and to fit the purse of the lavish spender and economical buyer at one and the same time.

While the chill north breezes are frosting the whiskers of the unwary men who expose themselves to its blasts, and turning rosy the cheeks of the fair sex who walk or ride out these wintry days, the beautiful symphonies of that tuneful melody, "In the Good Old Summer-Time," becomes more and more apparent.

The Roundabout is the home paper of Frankfort and Franklin county, and has been such for more than a quarter century, being now nearing the thirty-second year of its existence. During that time it has been read by generations of Frankfort's local people, and is growing in popularity at a steady pace. Of late it has taken on a new lease of life, and many new subscribers are being added to its lists each week. As an advertising medium to reach the home people, county and city, it stands without a rival. It "delivers the goods" in every case.

Those who have sinned so grievously and persistently during the year now rapidly drawing to a close, should prepare to don the sackcloth and ashes, as Lent is near at hand and the day of atonement draweth nigh. Society is expected to take a back seat during the sorrowful season in Frankfort, but the Legislature will be in session and the stately dames and fair maidens of the Capital may be compelled to throw aside the habiliments of woe in order to entertain the Solons, and keep up the proud record of Frankfort's hospitality.

The immense crowd of Kentuckians who filled to overflowing the city of Frankfort on Inauguration day was an unusually orderly and good humored one, and demonstrated that the citizenship of the State, composed of Republicans and Democrats, are alike when it comes to an occasion such as the inauguration of a Governor, or any other auspicious occasion, wherein the people of the whole Commonwealth are interested.

The American Dramatist is not abreast of the times as are his French brethren. For instance, when the Thaw-White tragedy and the subsequent sensational trial come to the front, not one of them did the theme justice. Here was plot and counterplot, intrigue and romantic situations by the score, but there was no literary to take advantage of the wide field opened up. For instance, what could have offered a more vivid contrast, and at the same time a better opportunity for the exploitation of the dramatist's talents, than the sin-besotted atmosphere of the "Dead Rat," and the quick change to the romantic and chaste surroundings of Tyrolense castle, in a valley of the Austrian Alps?

"Marse Henri" appears to be having great sport with the provincial roundabouts of the Democratic State press. They rush up to him, in crowds, and after delivering a series of short yelps, retreat again. Unlike other occasions of a like nature the great editor is this time not only on the defensive, but on the offensive, also. Every now and then he reaches out, bearlike, with a great paw, and rips one of the small fry to the hollow, when the rest of the pack fly yelping to the woods, only to venture forth again when they think the coast is clear.

Frankfort needs nothing so much as a drinking fountain for man and beast, and the advent of each succeeding large crowd in the city but accentuates the want. To a stranger in Frankfort, when there is anything like a big day being celebrated, it is a mighty hard thing to procure a quaff of Adam's ale. If some benevolent citizen, or former citizen of the old town would donate a sum sufficient for the purpose, his statue would fill a niche in the future Hall of Fame of the Capital City of Kentucky. And he or she would richly deserve such a distinction, too.

The idea of getting up a public library for the use of the people of Frankfort is a most excellent one, and of course originated in the brains and hearts of the women, where all things good and noble have their beginning. There is no one thing that could come to Frankfort that would prove more of a lasting blessing than a public library, and there is no movement that has arisen here in years that deserves, or has deserved, more hearty support at the hands of the representative citizens of "Bigger" Frankfort. It should be given instant and substantial help.

The former, beautiful and attractive ravine known as "Devil's Hollow," on the River Road, is in a fair way to lose most of its romantic appearance, in so far as that part of it visible to a certain portion of Frankfort is concerned. Commercialism, now so rampant, has invaded this spot, made famous by the tuneful poems of the late Major Henry T. Stanton, and a quarry and rock crusher which have been operating here for a year or more, is changing the whole face of nature thereabouts, much to the displeasure of olden time citizens.

DEMOCRATS HOLD ON TILL JANUARY 6.

There appears to be a slight misunderstanding as to when the Republican State officers would take their seats, and the "has-beens" would vacate. The new Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Railroad Commissioners went into office, of course, at noon on December 10, as stated by us, but the other officials will not assume their offices and duties until January 6, when the whole State government will come into the hands of the Republicans.

There will be a great change on the square, and that center of the State Government will be peopled with entirely new faces. Even the fat, sleek and well-groomed negro servants and porters, who claim to be Democrats, will be removed, and a new set of men will take their places. Some of the colored contingent, who have lived off the State for many years, while sailing under false colors, are already trying to beg into their old places, but it is understood, they will all be fired unceremoniously. This is as it should be.

GOOD SERVICE ON STREET RAILWAY.

The Kentucky Central Traction Company, which owns the local street railway, is giving an excellent service this winter and is running the same number of cars as were used during the summer months. One car operates on the East Main street branch, another on the Leestown "division," and two run to Thorn Hill. All of them make good time and are heated to a comfortable degree during the prevalence of cold weather. Mr. Saliba, the local superintendent, is winning golden opinions from the people of Frankfort for his constant endeavors in behalf of their needs in city transportation.

LID ON FOR WINTER.

As exclusively foreshadowed in the Roundabout of Saturday last, the flat has gone forth from the powers that be, in this city, to clip down the lid with a vengeance in regard to saloons opening on the Sabbath. The command was obeyed to the letter, it is said, last Sunday, and the same conditions will prevail to-morrow, according to the latest reports. The municipal authorities always take on a spasm of virtue when the winter winds are howling, but when the gentle zephyrs of spring awaken the flowers, the lid is allowed to slide off, and those who like to indulge in the "cup that cheers" are invited, in the words of Omar Kyan, to "Come fill the cup, and in the lap of spring."

Thy winter garment of repentance fling!"

POOR HOUSE KEEPER ELECTED.

Mr. Tillman Harrod, who has served one term as keeper of the county poor farm of Franklin county, was elected for another term, by the Franklin County Fiscal Court, at a sitting held last Saturday. It is said that Mr. Harrod has made a good official, and his administration of the office has given very general satisfaction.

GOV. WILLSON WILL TRY TO SETTLE TROUBLES.

Gov. Willson has issued invitations to the heads of the tobacco organizations, both the growers and buyers, to hold a conference at his office, Friday, December 29, with a view to settling the trouble. It is his idea to let the people know where the blame lies in this matter. It is on the same plan with President Roosevelt's settlement of the Pennsylvania local troubles.

Lagle, of 527 North St. Clair Street, Frankfort, Ky., says: "For some four or five years, I hardly knew what it was to be free from an aching back, and the irregular action of the kidneys at the same time caused other symptoms which were very annoying and distressing. Although I tried different remedies, I was unable to find anything that would do me any permanent good until I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at J. W. Gayle's drug store. I had taken but a few doses of this good preparation when I realized that I was regaining my health, and on a continuation of their use, found my condition so improved as to be almost beyond relief. For all this most wonderful relief I obtained, I give all praise and thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills."

DEFINING DEMOCRACY.

Local stories of more or less interest concerning the late campaign, preceding the State election, continue to come to the surface now and then. One of the best of them was related by a farmer who resides in the Bald Knob neighborhood, in this county, on inauguration day. He stated that a local spellbinder, who was about to begin his address to the Democratic voters of that neighborhood, first informed the audience of sturdy Burley growers that he was going to take for his subject "Democracy," and asked if any of those present knew the meaning of the word.

All remained silent for awhile, when one old man, whose gray beard was dripping with the juice of the burley, arose and said that he knew the meaning of the doctrine. When requested to explain for the benefit of his brethren, he replied, with a comical shake of his head: "Democracy is nothing but d—n a rascal-ity; howsumever, I'm plumb full of it!"

GOV. AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON.

Largest and Most Enthusiastic Crowd Ever in Capital City Witness Inauguration.

The guests to attend the inauguration of Gov. Augustus E. Willson commenced to pour into the city on Monday, and the stream of humanity never ceased to flow in this direction until after noon of Tuesday. It is conservatively estimated that there were not less than 20,000 strangers within our hill-girt city when the procession commenced its march at 10:30 a. m. of that day.

Train after train load of happy and jolly people came from all quarters of the State, special trains being run to accommodate the big crowds from Mayville, Covington, Newport, Ashland, Winchester, Lexington, Richmond, Paducah, Hopkinsville, Bowling Green, Louisville, Owensboro, etc.

Promptly at 10:30 o'clock Chief Marshal Jno. W. Milam commenced the formation of the procession, which was headed by the Second Regiment Band of this city.

The various organizations followed in order:

Cadets of Kentucky Military Institute, under Col. C. W. Fowler, with their band—140 strong.

Cadets of Millerburg Military Institute, with band—75 strong.

Platoon of Police.

Cadets of Kentucky State College—a regiment of 400 strong—under Major Brutt.

Kentucky Harvard Association as guard of honor to their Prater—Gov. Willson.

Outgoing and incoming State Officials; Judges of the Court of Appeals; distinguished citizens; members of Republican State Campaign Committees in carriages.

Military Companies of Frankfort, under Capt. Norman—40 strong.

Various marching clubs from Covington, Lexington, Louisville and other points in vast numbers.

Fire Department.

Colored organizations and prominent colored citizens.

Last, but not by any means least, was the original "Log Cabin," of Messrs. Hammond & Co., of this city, with the coon and pickaninny occupants.

So soon as the State officials and others were seated in carriages, the procession marched east on Broadway to Ann street; south on Ann to Main; west on Main to St. Clair; south on St. Clair to Bridge and Second; east on Second to Capital Avenue; south on Capital Avenue to Third; west on Third to Conway; north on Conway to Bridge and Wapping; west on Wapping to Wilkinson; north on Wilkinson to Main; east on Main to Washington; north on Washington to Broadway; east on Broadway to Capital grounds.

Long before the procession reached the grounds a vast sea of humanity packed those grounds, until an old farmer estimated the crowd by acres, not by numbers.

The largest stand ever erected for the purpose had been assigned to invited guests and State officials, and was crowded to the limit. Every body seemed in a happy and good humored state, notwithstanding the snow and rain and chilly winds, which had been on hand all the morning. Just before the ceremonies at the platform the heavens brightened up and the weather became more favorable.

As soon as the officials arrived on the stand the following order of exercises was carried out:

Music—Second Regiment Band. Prayer—Rev. Wm. Crowe.

Presentation of silver service and grandfather's clock (on behalf of citizens of Frankfort) retiring Gov. Beckham—Hume.

Valictory A. J. C. W. Beckham.

Inaugural Address—Gov. Augustus E. Willson.

Gov. Willson spoke as follows: "Ladies and gentlemen, fellow citizens, neighbors and friends—To one and all, affectionate greetings, thank my distinguished predecessor for his greetings and good will, and I wish for him the good will of all his people for all time and all blessings and prosperity. I thank the people of Kentucky for their generous kindness, which no man could deserve. I thank the people of Frankfort, the good old capital of the Commonwealth, for their splendid greeting and handsome way in which they have done all in their power to make this day remembered.

"The people in Kentucky have made and recorded their choice of officers of the State for the next term in the way, fixed by law, which is the covenant and agreement of our people.

"The officers whose terms now end attend to deliver the offices to their successors, who are present to receive them. This multitude of people have come to witness the ceremony of the change of parties and administration. "All is done in a spirit and manner most fitting and worthy of a great people. All of the strife and contention of the campaign and election are ended. A great revolution has taken place, but it has been quiet, orderly and without danger or disturbance. A revolution by ballot in a free State and fair election.

"All the people accept the result as good citizens, without ill feeling on the one side or unseemly triumph on the other. Those who lost meet the result like men of courage and high spirit. Those who won realize the sturdy strength of those with whom the battle was fought. There is no sign of hate or bitterness.

"Throughout the State the people who were just now divided into strict- ly opposing camps are again united cordially in the bonds of love of our country and loyalty to the Commonwealth and human brotherhood, steadfastly upholding our old laws and our new officers even as if they had never been divided.

"We have written one more splendid page in the living history which goes on term after term recording the noble success and wonderful blessings of our people's own government. All parties alike join in celebrating the inauguration of the new officers with generous good will.

"No one can by words set forth all of the greatness of such a people. It overwhelms the mind and imagination to try to realize the impressive solemnity of nearly half million of men leaving their homes and their work to elect their officers, a handful of men to represent the power of the State and carry out the will of its people.

"Each succeeding group of officers is in good faith taken as the government of all the people, to serve all faithfully and usefully, to preserve our liberties and to protest all against wrong and injustice. Chosen by the people in the time-honored way, we rely on their warm good will and support of their own institutions.

"The officers chosen are required by law to take the oath of office as a sacred pledge to be loyal to the people, the Constitution and the law. I take that pledge earnestly, and with deep and serious feeling, resolved that my work and life shall show better than my words can tell how deep and strong is my feeling of the wonderful, almost incredible kindness of all our people to me.

"I respond to that kindness with my heart full of love of all the people, and with reverence for our form of government. It does not seem possible that any man ever could have such a generous and even affectionate confidence and good will as our people have given me, both before and since the election.

"No one could possibly feel more grateful or more solemnly bound to give back rich measure than I do, and no one could be more soberly and seriously conscious that I am of his utter helplessness to make such returns without the help and favor of our God, the steadfastness of our institutions and the constant good will and the steady support of our people. I enter upon my work and duties with grave and anxious, but unflinching faith, hope and courage.

"In the fight which achieved the revolution, I strove with all my might as the chosen leader of a great party. With the taking of the oath of office I devote my life, my hopes and all the powers given to me with fervent zeal for the four years of my term, or so much thereof as I may be spared to work, as the chosen Governor of all the people, in unselfish service of all alike. I ask and pray for help to be truly unselfish; that no thought of selfish interest or ambitions be permitted to cloud my judgment or narrow my sympathies and weaken my unselfishness.

"Our form of government is no longer an experiment, but is an established and mighty government of law and order, maintained for more than a century and precious beyond the belief or power to describe.

"Our law—the will of all the people and the common heritage of every soul in our State—does not request, but commands us, each and every one, to obey in order that every one of us shall have its full and equal protection; that no one shall trespass upon the liberty or the just rights of any other, and that every one shall, in peace and safety, enjoy all that is his own.

"To all who obey it covenants to give protection in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Upon all who break the law we covenant to impose punishment. The protection of all who obey the law and the punishment of all who break it must be so quick, so sure, so severe that no one shall dare to take the risk.

"There are many great and noble pages in the history of our own old Kentucky. Everywhere throughout the State I have found the people honest, brave, true and kind even to a fault. So it ever was, and so I trust, and believe it ever shall be.

"Let us kindle anew the flame in the torch of Liberty, enlightening the world in the name of every Kentuckian who has fought for Liberty in all of our wars, for the sake of every Kentucky man or woman who in the countless paths of peace has striven or toiled or suffered in our everyday world for liberty.

"I sound the call for every man and woman in the State to condemn and strive to punish the crime, violence and disorder which shames us in the sight of God and man; to drive from the sight of the civilized world the brutal menace of mob law, and I appeal to all of the people here and all of our Kentucky people throughout the State, as I hope to appeal in a few days to their representatives in the General Assembly.

"Can not we all get together long enough to set right some things which we all know are wrong? Can we not all agree to suspend our never-ending arguments over political theories and who shall hold office long enough to have a fair and square understanding

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and an anesthetic. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. It is not to be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. I will cure chronic coughs, bronchitis, catarrhal troubles, and chronic asthma with ease. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time. In its action upon embittered, disordered stomachs, especially if there is elevation of extrinsic gastric catarrhal inflammation of stomach, it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of dyspepsia and excessive gastric acidity." "Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood, cures blood poisons, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and all sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

GOV. AUGUSTUS E. WILSON.

with each other, so that everyone in the State will love Kentucky because it is so just and fair? Can any one believe that good law comes of injustice, inequality or unfairness?

The merchants of to-day avoid sharp bargains and hard bargains, and try to build up a great trade by dealing fairly to all. Does any man or woman anywhere believe that Kentucky has advanced in honor or character or nobility of heart and soul, in civilization, in the welfare or happiness of its people by inequality or unfairness in districting the State or framing the election law?

"Does any Democrat believe to-day, after it has been fully tried out, that changing districts to help prominent or ambitious party men here and there or to get or to hold on to some district office, has in the long run enhanced the good name or prompted the success of that party?

"Is an unfair district or an unfair law honest or respectable? Do you believe that your party will lose or gain in the long run by being too honorable to play with marked or unfair cards? Has the gerrymander of the mountains built up or exterminated the party's chances in the mountains? Is it weaker or stronger for having by injustice crowded out a district with over 17,000 safe adverse majority?

"Now, my neighbors, I am not here to reflect or criticize. I am here to speak from my heart, for all Kentucky—Democrat and Republican alike. I am here to speak for peace and good fellowship for the upbuilding of all men.

"I am here to promise a non-partisan and unselfish devotion to my duties. Let us all come together as one man for old Kentucky. Let us be honest, high-minded and dutiful to the State and affectionate to one another. I shall always be glad to help you. I am a servant of the people, and to that work I consecrate my strength and life. I thank you, one and all."

Administration of oath of office to Gov. Wilson and Lieut. Gov. Wm. H. Cox—Chief Justice E. C. O'Rear. Benediction—Rev. Father Thos. S. Major.

The enthusiasm was unbounded and telling points in the addresses were greeted with cheers by the big crowd.

The marching of the Cadets from the K. M. I., M. M. L. and Kentucky State College was exceptionally well executed.

Everybody seemed in such a good humor that no note of discord was heard on any side. The crowd was the most orderly and well behaved that it has ever been our pleasure to witness. But little, if any, drunkenness visible, and the general remark was "this is the best behaved crowd of its size we ever saw."

With the exception of the skillful corralling of a number of the "right-fingered gentry," by the detectives and police, there was but little use for the police force.

Frankfort sure had her "glad rags" on, and the old girl did look just as nice as possible. It was the greatest day in her history and long to be remembered.

THAT NEW COURTHOUSE.

Many citizens constantly inquire why is it that a new courthouse is not built for Franklin county, to displace the tumble-down building at present answering that purpose. In justice to the county authorities, it must be said that the delay of beginning the work is excusable for several good and sufficient reasons. It is the ambition of County Judge Polsgrove to see a new and commodious home for the county erected before his tenure of office expires, and with this end in view, and with the aid of the other officials of the county, he has collected and placed aside for this purpose a considerable sum from the county levy of each year for the past several years.

This sum has now assumed considerable proportions, and the work of building would be justified on the part of the county authorities, were it not for the fact that it is perhaps the wiser plan to wait for another year. In that time the New Capitol will have been completed and there may be a chance to purchase the east wing of the old State House from the Commonwealth. With the occupation of the new building this east wing of the old will be left on the hands of the State, and as there is no apparent use to which it could be put, its sale to the county of Franklin for a fair consideration is more than likely.

With some alterations, the building spoken of would make a splendid courthouse, as the location is ideal, and the proportions not only ample, but such as to lend themselves easily to the alterations and remodeling that would, in the end, be necessary. Should this be brought about, and the chances are in its favor, Franklin county need not then be ashamed of its executive building, but might rather point with pride to the magnificent structure. The sale of the site of the present building would add considerably to the sum already hoarded by the county authorities, and would no doubt tempt the State to part with the property so soon to be abandoned.

If, however, it shall develop that the State will not part with the property for a reasonable sum, then the county authorities will get busy, and dismantling the present structure of the old courthouse site, erect a costly and imposing one in its stead.

BADLY MIXED UP.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so many advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, 50c.

THAT LOG CABIN.

The log cabin that Hammond & Co. had in the parade Tuesday was built by two young Republicans of the west side—Messrs. Landon Ziegler and Isaac Locke.

Mr. Hammond has placed it in his lumber yard where he will keep it, he says, until Fairbanks is elected President, next year, when he will have it in the parade again.

BROUGHT BACK FOR BURIAL.

The body of Capt. Wm. Shindlauer, who died in Lexington last week, at the advanced age of 82 years, was brought here on Saturday and interred by the side of his wife in our cemetery.

Capt. Shindlauer was a baker for many years, for the firm of Gray & Todd, whose establishment was in the building now occupied by Farmer's store.

He afterwards served as a policeman in this city, and as city marshal of Nicholasville.

ALL QUIET IN THE BURLEY BELT.

Though the "night riders" have been busy in the dark tobacco district, there is practically no disorder in the Burley Belt, as the tobacco planters of the Blue Grass evince no disposition to break the law, being inclined rather to fight their battle on the broad principle of justice and equity, and trusting that in the end right will prevail, to the confusion of the enemies of the farmer.

The outrages which have recently been committed by armed desperadoes in the dark district, involving loss of life and property, should in no way be laid at the doors of the men of this section. The outrages spoken of were perpetrated by large numbers of masked men, who are spoken of as "night riders," but whose real identity is unknown to the public of the localities, where their activities have aroused the most resentment and alarm.

When the investigations set in motion by the proper authorities of the law have progressed far enough to unmask the real outlaws, it will then be seen who are the guilty parties. Until then, let us withhold judgment even on the A. S. E. men of the dark district.

While some scattering warnings have been received, by independent growers of burley tobacco, in Franklin county, no damage to property has resulted, and the same may safely be said of every county in a belt. It is not thought that the warnings received hereabouts were sent to intimidate the growers, but may have been in the nature of a joke on the part of their friends.

Monday morning it was discovered that the barn of Mr. Alvin Wiley, whose farm is located on the Franklin and Scott county line, was burned to the ground, and about three thousand pounds of tobacco went up in the flames. While Mr. Wiley is an independent grower, it is not known who committed or instigated the outrage, and until absolute proof is forthcoming, no blame should be attached to the Association men of Franklin county.

In an able address, delivered at a notable assemblage of Association growers in Lexington, on Monday last, Senator Campbell Cantrill advocated a proposition that not only no tobacco be raised in the burley belt during the season 1908, but during the seasons of 1909 and 1910 as well. He made another significant declaration when he said that if the farmers of the Blue Grass State could not secure a fair price for tobacco raised they should discontinue its production altogether, and let the trust find, if it could, willing victims in other fields who would don the yoke of servitude thrown off by them.

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath, Faint and Languid.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that regard today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—REV. GEO. W. KIRACOFF, Chantanooga, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver or lungs become affected. Again, the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

SKATING CONTEST—LEXINGTON VS. FRANKFORT.

A skating contest was held at the Coliseum Skating Rink, in Lexington, on Wednesday night. It was between teams from both Lexington and Frankfort. First honor was won by Lexington, second by Frankfort, and third by Lexington.

Quite a number of people went over on an Interurban Car to witness the contest.

CONCERT FOR BENEFIT OF PUBLIC LIBRARY FUND.

The concert given on Thursday night at the Episcopal Parish House, under the auspices of the Woman's Club, for the benefit of the Public Library Fund, was a most delightful one.

The music, both vocal and instrumental, was of the highest order. There was a good audience present, and they enjoyed every number to the fullest.

We are glad to say that quite a neat sum was realized to aid in this good work.

EDITOR WALTON GETS FOUR DAYS OFFICE.

Editor W. P. Walton, of the State Journal, was appointed to the position of Railroad Commissioner to succeed Col. C. C. McChord, resigned, by Gov. Beckham. He held office for four days, being succeeded by Col. L. P. Tarlton on Tuesday. Nevertheless he drew $28.50. Every little helps.

Rate Clerk—Moses R. Glenn, of Central City.

Stenographer—Miss Minnie Murphy, of Williamsburg.

POWERS TRIAL.

The statement of the case for the defense was made by Judge Sims, late that afternoon, and it was stated that the defense would introduce testimony showing who fired the fatal shot and that Powers had nothing to do with the matter.

APPOINTED ADJUTANT GENERAL.

Gov. Willson has selected Maj. Phil. P. Johnson, of Lexington, as Adjutant General, and he has accepted and entered upon his duties.

This is an admirable selection and a graceful recognition of the Confederate soldier element among his supporters. It will meet with the hearty approval of all good citizens.

HAND CRUSHED.

A white section hand had his hand crushed, while at work helping to lay the big rails, on the L. & tracks, at the new depot, yesterday morning. We could not learn the man's name, but he was called "John." The rail fell on his left hand, crushing off three fingers.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, malaise, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest. You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures.

August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with this way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerves, all steps, and all blood ailments.

The Night Cure, as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, builds local weakness and discharges, while the Restorative, cleans nervous system, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds to wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

A PICTURESQUE FIGURE.

The latest candidate mentioned for county judge in the Democratic primary, which will be held next year, is "Rabbit" Jim Moore, of Lebanon Ridge, and he has become known to most of the citizens of Franklin and adjoining counties through a peculiar happening dating back to a year or more ago. This latest aspirant for political honors is a son of Mr. Polk Moore, and his name has become familiar from the fact that at the time mentioned his modest farm and granary, as well as his household provisions, were overrun by a pest of rabbits, and the subsistence of himself and family almost destroyed by the hungry "cotton tails." Only the published appeal to the public to come to his aid and rid his premises of the menace saved the day for him. Hunters from every section of this and other counties flew to his rescue and quickly thinned out the ranks of the rabbits, which bid fair to eat him out of house and home. Mr. Moore is a reliable man and sterling citizen, who will command a large support on the part of his numerous friends in his race for the office he seeks.

State Inspector and Examiner—M. Hudson Thatcher, of Louisville.

Clerk to State Treasurer—Mr. Otho Clope, of Mayfield.

Assistant Attorney General—Mr. Thos. B. McGregor, of Washington county.

PANIC NOT FELT IN FRANKFORT.

While the stringency of the money market may have been the cause of hurting business in other cities, there are no indications which would go to show that the Capital City has suffered in the least from the alleged panic, and all lines of trade are in the normal condition for this season of the year, with excellent promise for the largest holiday business ever known here.

It is but natural that, with the advent of wintry weather, building operations and kindred industries should display a falling off, but signs go to show that, when spring shall have arrived, everything will be resumed, and in the meantime enough work will be carried on to tide the laborers and mechanics over the winter.

Philip G. Smith, Jr., of San Diego, California, the son of Walter C. Smith, who was born and raised in this county, entertained a number of his friends on Friday, November 22, celebrating his second birthday. The little fellow remembered his grandmother, Mrs. Philip Smith, of Switzer, by sending her a package of his birthday cake and candles. It is remembered that his father (Walter) left Kentucky four years ago for San Diego for his health, and it is there where he was married and has made it his home.

BATH ROBES SMOKING JACKETS

Essential in the first place, exceedingly comfortable in the second place. Either bath robe or smoking jacket is a gift not to be excelled. Especially strong line at $5.00 and on up to unusually handsome robe at $15 and $20.

DRESS SUIT CASES BAGS

A handsome piece of leather goods is an aristocratic remembrance, and from a solid leather suit case at $5.00 up to luxurious Likly cases and bags at $15 to $22, there is a variety any one of which will make the man feel that his Christmas is worth while.

COLLAR AND CUFF BAGS

For the man who travels much these are indispensable. Made of various handsome leathers ranging in price from $1 to $3. They keep collars from soiling and cause them to occupy very little space.

FANCY VESTS

Several patterns in brown woelens, which will be sure to please the younger men. They add a touch to the costume impossible with the ordinary vest. $4 and $5.

MUFFLERS TIES

The neckwear here this Christmas is gorgeous. We have never seen such handsome silks or such pleasing combinations of colors. 50c. to $2, and the 50c. line is really wonderful. Mufflers at from 75c. to $3.50, mostly in blacks, whites and pearls, are always appreciated.

Then there are slippers, shirts, socks, umbrellas, silk suspenders, any of which makes a valued present and the prices on which are modest. If the man's gift comes from McClure's it's right.

THE RESULT TO BE EXPECTED.

As a result of the inflammatory speeches made by demagogues in the Mark tobacco district, the city of Hopkinsville was captured by a mob of some 200 "night riders" from Christian and Trigg counties, on Friday night. The police and fire departments, the telegraph and telephone offices, the L. & N. Railway depot and other buildings were captured; one tobacco buyer was beaten so badly that his life was despaired of; a railroad brakeman mortally wounded; plate glass windows in banks and business houses shot out; residences fired into, and other disgraceful things done.

Two large tobacco warehouses and contents destroyed by fire.

The total loss is about $150,000. This is the legitimate result which has been expected to follow upon the inflammatory speeches of demagogues, who have gone through that region recently.

The stern arm of the retributive law will have its inning now, and with the man at the head of the State government who is not afraid to execute the laws, this character of outrages will be promptly suppressed.

A REAL WONDERLAND.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

RUMOR THAT GLASS FACTORY WILL START AGAIN.

It was rumored on the street Wednesday morning that the Frankfort Modes Glass Works would begin operations again about the first of January, and would run steadily from that time forward to the end of the season. It is not known, as yet, whether the rumor bears the stamp of truth, but the indications are that the owners of the big plant contemplate such a move in the near future.

Should it turn out, as predicted, it will, of course, prove a valuable feeder to the local trade and help business very much. A well posted glass blower, in speaking of the plant, is authoritative for the statement that the owners can not afford to let the factory remain idle for any length of time, as in such an event, he asserts, the value of the outfit would be very materially reduced, to the great loss of the parties who have their money invested in this industry.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for Coffee. Sold by T. H. Brammell.

STAMPING GROUND.

The corn market has dropped from $2.50 per barrel to $2.

Mr. James Kenney, of Owen county, is the guest of his mother, Mr. L. F. Kenney.

Several car loads of fat hogs were shipped from here last week. They brought $4.50 per 100 pounds.

Mr. Heim Glasse and wife, Mr. Todd Hughes and daughter, of Owen county, were guests of Rev. G. W. Hill this week.

Squire S. B. Triplett and Mr. Bishop Kisselager, who has been on a month's trip to Oklahoma, have returned. They are very much pleased with the country and with the prospects of the 46th State.

The local Union, No. 2796, A. S. E., will hold an important meeting at Town Hall, on Saturday next, December 14. All members are urged to attend.

A singular thing occurred here last Sunday. Two twin sisters (Amahda and Malvina Johnson, colored) were baptized by the pastor of the Colored Baptist Church. They are supposed to be over 80 years of age.

Mr. Richard C. Head, assistant cashier of the Commercial Bank and Trust Co., of Louisville (but for many years cashier of the Citizens Bank of this place), visited his brother-in-law, Mr. C. B. Roberts, in this place.

We regret to learn that the tobacco barn of Mr. Alvin Wiley, on the Woodlake pike, was burned, with its contents, by the "night riders," on Saturday night. The loss was heavy, and only $750 insurance.

UNO.

MUNICIPAL PLAYGROUNDS.

Mrs. Lovell White, president of the Out Door League of San Francisco, headed a band of women who worked at the polls during the recent election there, in behalf of the amendment to provide playgrounds for the children. The women distributed the city, and stood at every polling place, handing the voters cards asking them to vote for the playgrounds. The amendment won, and the women are happy. But some of them are now saying that it would have taken them less time to vote for the playgrounds themselves than to stand all day at the polls urging others to do so.

NIGHT RIDERS READ THIS.

It will be remembered that we called the attention of the "night riders," in our last issue, to the fact that the "kuklux" law was still upon the statute books, and that they were liable to get into trouble. We here-with print the salient points of that statute:

1. If two or more persons band together for the purpose of intimidating or injuring anyone, or to do any felonious act, they and each of them shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years.

2. Banding together and going forth for the purpose of molesting or injuring property, whether it be actually injured or not, is a felony, and punishable by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years.

3. (a) If injury results to persons or property by reason of the acts above described, persons engaged in, or anyone aiding or abetting, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than fifteen years, unless death should result, in which event the offense would be murder.

(b) The offense shall not be mitigated by the claim that it was committed under sudden heat or passion, or that it was done without malice, and it is made the duty of the judge trying the case to so instruct the jury.

(c) Each person so engaged is made civilly responsible (that is, responsible in damages in a civil court) to the person injured.

5. (a) The Governor may offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of each offender.

(b) He may also employ detectives to ferret out the offenders, not exceeding two at any one time, and he can not expend for the purpose of detectives exceeding $3,000 a year.

(c) The County Judge in each county where the offense is committed may also supplement the Governor's reward by a reward payable through the county treasury of $200 for the apprehension and conviction of each offender.

6. No one shall send or exhibit or put up any threatening notice or letter whether it be signed or unsigned. The penalty for this is a fine of $100.

to $500 and confinement in the county jail not less than three nor more than twelve months.

7. No witness shall be exempt from testifying because his testimony may tend to discriminate him, but it can not be used against him except in a prosecution for perjury.
